

Rental Accommodations and Rates

Harmony Hill offers a unique venue for your event.

Groups of every kind enjoy the features and amenities of our Pacific Northwest retreat. Our Guest Services staff are experts at meeting your needs and expectations to make your event a memorable success.

The 11.5-acre campus offers hiking trails, labyrinths, spectacular gardens and views of the Olympic Mountains and Hood Canal. There's lots to do in the scenic region and in our local Union area.

Seasonal whole foods meals from our kitchen are typically vegetarian. We provide catering for groups of ten to 125, happily creating custom menus for seasonal, nutritious meals.

We can customize more than your meals— you can take your retreat, conference or business meeting to the next level with our wellness and business workshop leaders. Faculty members offer topics from nutrition to strategic planning, or simply enjoy yoga, massage, art workshops, labyrinth guides and more.

Harmony Hill offers people with cancer the only no cost residential program in the Pacific Northwest. Our healing mission is supported with rentals for events, meetings, celebrations and ceremonies.

We provide a comfortable, rustic retreat for groups from ten to 175 with meeting space, program and amenities options. Overnight rooms for 34 are primarily double-occupancy, some with private bathrooms, some ADA-accessible.

Let's create a custom rental package for you. Call weekdays 9 to 4, Pacific time at (360) 898-2363 or email guestservices@harmonyhill.org

Overnight & Meeting Accommodations

The Creekside Lodge, BuiltGreen™

2005, ideal for guests with allergies or compromised immune systems. Seven sleeping rooms plus 375-sq.ft. Runnings Conference Room (holds 15-20) with adjoining deck and kitchenette.

The Gatehouse, BuiltGreen™ 2010, three rooms with bath, coffee and mini-fridge.

The Guest Lodge, a 1920's family vacation home, now houses our main kitchen and dining room for up to 36 guests, Wellness Resource library, gift shop and five guest rooms with shared mini-fridges.

The Cottage, a 1920's vacation home, features meeting space for up to 20, kitchen, four sleeping rooms and a covered porch overlooking Hood Canal.

The Elmer & Katharine Nordstrom Great Hall, BuiltGreen™

2006, features 2,000-sq.ft. Steven M. Pontes Performance Hall with excellent acoustics, sound system wired throughout the building, theatrical lighting and floating wood floor for movement activities. Accommodates 125 diners, 175 for performance seating. Includes a 350-sq.ft. fireside Gathering Room breakout space. Directly off the spacious foyer are restrooms with shower facility. The covered wraparound porch offers additional seating and event space with panoramic Hood Canal and Olympic Mountain views.

The Yurt is a 700-sq.ft. multi-purpose carpeted and heated space for art classes, massage and movement activities. Accommodates 40 for seated or informal gatherings, 15 for activities. Overnight (for up to six) is a plush alternative to tents.

6	Meeting rooms
34	Overnight beds
36	Dining hall service
125	Catered banquet seating
175	Event seating

Rental Rates

Overnight single or double accommodations range from $110 to 170 per night.

For groups of ten or more, seasonal, nutritious meal options range from box lunches to catered banquet.

On-site options include tables, linen and dishes, chairs, A/V equipment, parking attendants and yoga classes, to name a few.

Retreat, meeting and event rates are custom-tailored for groups of ten to hundreds and vary for each event — complimentary planning and estimates start when you call Guest Services.

To get started on your retreat, call (360) 898-2363 or email guestservices@harmonyhill.org.

We look forward to telling you more about Harmony Hill.

